DUJARDIN'S LIFE ESSENCE

This Wonder of Modern Chemistry is pronounced to be unequalled for its power of replenishing the vitality of the body, by supplying all the essential elements of the Blood, Brain and Nerve Substance, and for developing all the powers and Functions of the System to the highest degree. It acts as a specific, restoring all those of the present age, for the speedy and permanent cure of all ailments of the Nervous and Blood Systems, Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Mental and Physical Depression, Incapacity for Study or Business, Noises in the Head and Ears, Loss of Energy and Appetite. Being a natural Restorative, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction but are Permanent, and are frequently shown, from the first day of its administration, by a remarkable Increase of the Nervous Power, with a feeling of Vigor, Strength and Comfort to which the patient has long been unaccustomed. The nervous symptoms disappear, as well as the Functional Derangement. Sleep becomes calm and refreshing. At the same time the patient gains flesh, the features presenting a striking improvement; the face becomes fuller, the lips red, the eyes brighter, the skin clear and healthy. The hair of the head and beard grow and acquire strength, as also the nails, showing the importance of the action of the medicine on the organs of nutrition. It gives back to the human structure, in a suitable form, the Lively, Animating Element of life which has been wasted, and exerts an important influence directly on the Brain, Spinal Marrow and Nervous System, of a Nutritive, Tonic and Invigorating character, thereby checking all wasting of the Vital Fluid and the more Exhausting Processes of Life, maintaining that Buoyant Energy of the Brain and Muscular System which renders the Mind Cheerful, Happy, Brilliant and Energetic; entirely overcoming that dull, inactive and sluggish disposition which many persons experience in all their action. Price, $1.50 per bottle.

THE LONDON UPRISING.

Trouble Predicted, if the Distress Continues.

ALARM AND INSECURITY FELT.

Who is James Scott?—The Split in the British Nationalist Party—Killed in a Quarrel.

The London Riots.

LONDON, February 9.—Fears are entertained that the riots of yesterday will be renewed to-day. This is what could naturally be expected when the immunity enjoyed by the mob in its work of destruction yesterday is considered. The police showed they were entirely powerless to cope with such a force as that with which they were confronted. In anticipation of another demonstration to-day, small crowds of roughs have been peering into Trafalgar Square from different points of the city, and at this hour the crowd assembled there numbers fully 3,000. None of the leaders, however, of yesterday's disturbance have made their appearance as yet, and whether any programme has been determined on for another outbreak is not known. The west end, to-day, wears a holiday appearance. A general feeling of alarm and insecurity is felt among residents of that quarter, and most of the shops are closed. Tradesmen are indignant at the lack of protection afforded them by the authorities and at the impotency of the police. No instructions have been given to the police as to what course to pursue in the event of further outrages by the mob, and shopkeepers feel that they are entirely unprotected against the pillage and destruction of their property. Though it is well-known who the leaders of the mob are, no arrests of any one connected therewith have been made. Tradesmen propose to send a petition to the Home office demanding that they be afforded protection from the depredations of the mob.

Hyndman, president of the Democratic federation, also came out yesterday. He predicts that terrible very serious proportions will ensue if the distress existing among the working people is not soon relieved.

A man will not starve forever, he says, and if the authorities refuse to help them, then they must not be surprised if force is resorted to, to procure bread.

Roughs are taking advantage of the fog to assemble in various parts of the west end. They are bold and impudent. One gang attempted to stop the carriage of members of the nobility who were on their way to St. James' Palace to attend a levee given by the Prince of Wales. A force of police was at hand, however, who drove back the crowd and dispersed them. The alarm is spreading to all parts of the city.

Who Is He?

NEW HAVEN, February 9.—Five years ago Wilson Waddingham, a millionaire of California, began the erection of a $500,000 residence at West Haven and engaged as his supervising architect and disbursing agent, James Scott, of Salt Lake City, a Mormon. Recently Waddingham had reason to believe Scott was dishonest. He engaged an attorney to investigate the matter, and five weeks ago Scott was arrested and placed in charge of a deputy sheriff who has kept him under his eye ever since. The matter has been kept very quiet. When first arrested Scott stoutly denied his guilt, but last night confessed that he had embezzled about $50,000 and claimed that several prominent merchants of this city were implicated with him. He claimed that he received bills from merchants for about one-third more than the regular price of the articles purchased and after paying the bills divided the surplus with the merchants. Scott was paid a salary of $8 per day, given a commodious residence and allowed $1,000 per week to pay the expenses of construction.

Storey's Will.

CHICAGO, February 9.—Judge Rogers in the circuit court this morning, decided that the will executed by William F. Storey, late owner of the Chicago Times, in February 1881, was valid, and directed that it be admitted to probate. The matter was heard on appeal from the Probate Court. The will was contested by blood heirs on three grounds—want of testamentary capacity, undue influence and that the instrument was not properly witnessed. The court held that there was no evidence of improper influence and that the will was legally attested. The will leaves the newspaper and the largest portion of the estate to his widow, Elsie C. Storey, Counsel for blood heirs gave notice of an appeal.

A Killing.

NEW YORK, February 9.—Samuel E. Thompson, a traveling salesman, had a quarrel early this morning on Greenwich Avenue, with Alexander Slater, a bar tender. Slater struck Thompson on the head with his clenched fist, falling him to the sidewalk. In his fall Thompson's head struck a flagstone with a crash. Thompson's skull was fractured by the fall, and he died in the station house shortly after. Slater said Thompson struck him in the saloon with a billiard cue, and he only retaliated when they reached the street. Thompson was in the cotton business, formerly, and had a fortune of $300,000, but lost it all in speculation.

Irish Politics.

DUBLIN, February 9.—Great interest is felt here as to the outcome of the split in the Nationalist party, in support of the candidates in the Parliamentary contest in Galway. Parnell, to-day, started for Galway to take part in the canvass of his nominee, O'Shea. He was accompanied by Thomas Power O'Connor, Kelly, Sexton, Deasy and Campbell. Fifty Irish members of Parliament have signed an appeal to the electors of Galway, asking them to uphold Parnell's nominee. Healy, who leads the opposition to the election of O'Shea, and who urges the return of Lynch, claims to have eighteen followers among the Irish members.

Lynching.

PARIS, Tex., February 9.—At 1 o'clock yesterday morning a mounted posse of nearly 100 masked men suddenly appeared in front of the jail in this (Lamar) county. While the cavalry remained mounted, a dozen of the party dismounted and knocked for admittance at the front door. Jailer Baldwin opened the door and immediately two men sprang inside. Baldwin showed fight and fired his revolver, but the men knocked his arm up and then choked Baldwin until he grew black in the face, and broke open a cell. The mob seized R. T. Garrett, the wounded desperado, who killed Deputy Sheriff Clay Dairs. They dragged him through the jail, placed him in a wagon, which stood waiting outside, and marched to the timber three quarters of a mile distant where Garrett was strung up to a tree. His body was found dangling from a common halter in the morning. The vigilantes prepared the attack with great care. Guards were placed on every street leading to the jail. The jailer's wife rang the alarm bell and many citizens tried to reach the jail but were pulled up by six shooters. Garrett was arrested for disturbing a Christmas tree festival at Shockley Prairie. Deputy Sheriff Davis kindly permitted him to visit his home before going to jail, whereupon Garrett seized his rifle and brutally murdered the officer, when the latter's back was turned. Garrett was afterwards captured in the woods, receiving fourteen desperate wounds while resisting arrest. He was just recovering from the wounds when Judge Lynch summoned him.

Justifying the Riot.

LONDON, February 9.—Sparling, a Socialist leader, in an interview in relation to the part taken by Socialists in the demonstration yesterday, said that while he did not approve rioting, still he could not but rejoice at the event which went to show that society was insecure. In regard to the stone throwing at Carlton Club, Sparling said members of that body had brought the attack upon themselves by appearing at the windows and laughing and jeering at the mob. In explanation of the rough treatment to which a lady had been subjected by the rioters, he said her carriage had been stopped, because the lady was heard to order her coachman to "drive over those dogs." The mob, Sparling said, selected and attacked the shops which exhibited the royal arms.
